Comment Similar in style and weight to the 1999 vintage. Classic cool climate Malbec, very dark, rustic and intense with a serious amount of fruit-tannins. This is Malbec for the purist and as such not your normal consumer-friendly red wine, but there is certainly no lack of character and integrity. Needs time in the cellar and will go well with flavourful food.

Short description Dark coloured, rustic and intensely flavoured red wine. Medium weight, great concentration, quite tannic, needs time and food. (February 2002)
